SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties shall be paid in equal monthly installments of $50 or ten percent of his net monthly income, whichever is greater, over a period of 29 months, to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision.

The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

Since the offense involved male victims under the age of 18 years, the defendant shall not have any unsupervised personal or indirect contact with males or females under the age of 18 years.

The defendant shall participate in an approved sexual offender treatment program, as directed by the probation officer. If deemed necessary, the defendant shall submit to an approved, sexual-predator evaluation, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the treatment program, including submission to polygraph and/or plethysmograph examination to determine compliance with the conditions of release. The defendant shall remain in the program until successfully completed, or until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Court and/or probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with counseling and/or evaluation based on a copay sliding fee scale as directed and approved by the United States Probation Office. The copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.

The defendant shall refrain from accessing any "material" that relates to the activity in which the defendant was engaged in during the commission of the instant offense, namely images of child pornography via any cellular phone, personal computer and/or electronic device capable of accessing the Internet, World Wide Web, and Electronic Mail.

The defendant shall permit the probation officer to have access to any personal computer and/or electronic device capable of accessing the Internet, World Wide Web, and Electronic Mail. The defendant shall also allow the probation officer or designee to conduct regular searches of his computer and/or electronic device using software monitoring devices if determined necessary by the probation officer. The defendant shall advise the probation officer of all e-mail addresses used on both public and private computers. The defendant shall consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer, concerning any computer-related restrictions that may be imposed. The defendant shall warn other residents or occupants of his home that computer systems will be subject to inspection by the probation officer and/or authorized contractor.

The defendant shall submit to a search, at any time, with or without a warrant, and by any law enforcement or probation officer, of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects, upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the defendant, or by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

Based on the defendant's documented history of mental health concerns, the Court has reason to believe that the defendant is in need of mental health treatment. The defendant shall undergo a mental health assessment and participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. This may include a psychiatric evaluation and may require participation in a medication regiment. The defendant shall follow the medication regiment as prescribed by a licensed practitioner, at the direction of the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered for counseling and/or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale, as directed and approved by the United States Probation Office. The copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.
